

Role Description: Early Years Volunteers

In this role volunteers will assist in the running of Small Worlds, our early years space. This includes helping visitors around the space and talking to the children and their adults about the stories and activities in each story zone. The volunteer will also prepare craft resources to use in the sessions and run the crafts and messy play area.